Czechoslovak arts and crafts attracted admiring attention during the "travel show" held last March in New York. By special request, some beautiful works of art were displayed at the recent silver jubilee convention of the League of American Pen Women, held at Wardman Park Hotel.

Ancient embroideries as well as the famous Bohemian glassware and Slovak pottery made with traditional skill and in dainty style were exhibited there.

It was noted on that occasion that even a small nation may have great painters, artists and masters of etching. Just as the art of Czechoslovakia is renowned throughout Europe, so also is Czechoslovak music and song well known throughout the world.

Several Washington clubs will avail themselves of the opportunity of a special exhibit of arts, crafts and etchings to acquaint their members with many new exquisite specimens of Czechoslovak art, which have not as yet been shown in this country, as is proposed by the Art and Archaeology Club of Washington.
